ABOUT ASV 2024

We invite you to be a part of the 43rd Annual Meeting of the American Society for Virology, taking place in person from June 24 - 28, 2024 at the Greater Columbus Convention Center, hosted by The Ohio State University. This event will bring together over 1,600 virologists from around the world, making it an exceptional opportunity for your organization to connect with a global audience of experts.

WHY EXHIBIT WITH US?

Exhibit tables will be prominently located in the Greater Columbus Convention Center's Short North Ballroom, alongside the ASV poster presentations. This strategic placement ensures that ASV exhibitors enjoy maximum exposure during the event.
