UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to Discover®

University of Minnesota

Founded in 1851 as the state's land-grant institution, the University of Minnesota is one of the state's greatest assets and the nation's most comprehensive universities, with award-winning faculty, state-of-the-art facilities, and world-class academic programs. At all five locations—Crookston, Duluth, Morris, Rochester, and Twin Cities—the University of Minnesota is dedicated to advancing discovery, fostering education, and applying knowledge to benefit the people of the state, the nation, and the world. The Twin Cities campus is situated along the banks of the Mississippi River in Minneapolis and in the rolling hills of Saint Paul, just minutes from downtown Minneapolis.

MINNESOTA

Twin Cities, Minnesota

The cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul, collectively known as the Twin Cities, are located in the state of Minnesota. Minnesota is proud of its many lakes, including the great Lake Superior. The mighty Mississippi River begins in northern Minnesota and travels throughout the state, gracing the state's rich landscape, diverse cultures, dynamic industries, and rich history. To learn more, please visit the website: www.exploreminnesota.com.

The Twin Cities offer a wealth of attractions for residents and visitors, including world-class museums, acclaimed theaters and concert halls, diverse restaurants, nearly 200 microbreweries, exciting sporting events, and the Mall of America.

Minneapolis is home to the Guthrie Theater, the Orpheum Theater, the Minneapolis Institute of Art, the Walker Art Center, and the Weisman Art Museum. In addition, there are four professional sports teams: Minnesota Twins Baseball (MLA), Timberwolves Basketball (NBA), Lynx Basketball (WNBA), and Vikings Football (NFL).

Saint Paul is home to the History Museum, the Science Museum, the Ordway Theater, and the Como Park Zoo and Conservatory. People can also visit the Wabasha Caves, where famous gangsters like John Dillinger hung out. Saint Paul is home to professional teams in the NHL (Minnesota Wild), PWHL (Minnesota Frost), and MLS (Minnesota United FC).
